The second of a series of Evange-

Saved," (excerpts).

These sermons are all very interesting and every one is cordially in-

SENATOR PAYNTER TO TAKE SOUTHERN TRIP.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 11.— Senator Thomas H. Paynter and his son, Pollock, are planning a pleasant trip through the South, which they will probably take before the opening session of Congress. Senator Paynter has not yet recovered from his severe attack of grip, which forced him to relinquish his efforts upon the stump for the Democratic ticket during the recent campaign.

Senator Paynter will probably visit points of interest in a number of the Southern States and may go as far west as Texas.

RECOLLECTIONS OF THE DROUTH OF 1854

R. R. Perry Tells of the Distress and Suffering of That Year.

The recent drouth was bad, but that mffu-tjsaoodeand-dtheonadev not comparable to that of 1854. It did not rain in that year for five months. The last rain in the cropping season was about July.

At that time there was a fine prospect for corn. Gradually the blades began to twist and in most cases it dried up entirely and there was no crop.

There were no railroads to bring supplies and the situation was distressing. In many sections of the State, stock died in great numbers.
Fortunately there was an early spring the next year and such stock as were gotten through the winter were saved by the green herbage.

In those distressing months following the drouth it was a question of bread for the people. I lived with my parents in the southern part of Anderson county. That section was only partially settled, but ten miles east on Salt river in Mercer county most of the land was in cultivation.
In that section there lived an old man by the name of Burris. He was wealthy and always kept several hundred barrels of corn ahead. When the failure of crops came he would not sell a bushel at any price. During the winter following he died and the administrators of the estate would let the people buy two bushels at a time to be used exclusively for bread.

The price was one dollar per bushel. I remember hearing the people comment on the old man's death by saying that his death was a blessing.
In the year 1855 abundant crops were raised.

EDUCATIONAL REVIVAL FOR KENTUCKY.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 11.—A week's educational revival, such as have been held so successfully in a number of Southern States, is being arranged off Kentucky by State Superintendent J. G. Crabbe. Six prominent educators from other States and about twenty-five interested in the cause from this State will take the stump in a whirlwind campaign, which will begin November 29, and wind up December 8.

This move is part of the plan of the Southern Educational Board, headed by R. C. Ogden, of New York, for the awakening of renewed interest in the cause of education in the Southern States. It is expected that this will be the biggest thing along educational lines ever attempted in Kentucky. The cost is estimated at about $1,500.

OWINGSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 11.— Emma Wilson and Mittie Coffin, both of this place were married here yesterday in the county jail.
Wilson was tried here last week for knocking Sidney Tinscher in the head and robbing him and was sentenced to serve four years in the penitentiary at Frankfort, where he will be taken to-morrow. Mrs.
Wilson will go to Ironton, Ohio, where she will make her home until Mr. Wilson has served out his term in the penitentiary.

Date Changed.

The next meeting of the Ninth District Newspapers League will be held in Maysville at 10 a. m.
November 20th, instead of the 13th, as was formerly announced.

CASE IS ON TRIAL.

The writ of forcible detainer against William Huls, who runs the Court View Hotel that was brought up for trial Tuesday afternoon before a special empanelled jury, is still in progress. There will not likely be any disposition made of the case Wednesday, as it will require some time to argue, after all the evidence has been heard.

DOGS FOLLOW SCENT TO A MAN'S HOUSE is Immediately Arrested Charged With Setting Fire to Neighber's Office.

OWINGSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 11.—
The office of Dr. Boone McClure, of Sherburne, Fleming county, was burned at 12 o'clock Friday night by neanderthals. Bloodhounds were immediately wired for to Lexington and when they arrived in charge of Detective Mullikin they followed a trail straight to Harry Morgan's home.
They were taken back to the scene of the fire and again put on the trail, and again went to the Morgan home.
Dr. McClure is a brother of Jacob McClure, whose general merchandise store was burned a few weeks ago.
At that time bloodhounds were sent out, but when they arrived so many people had been over the ground the dogs could do no good. After the fire last night a guard of about fifty men was secured and placed around the scene to keep the crowd back until the dogs arrived.

Harry Morgan, a brother of Dr.
Morgan, in an attempt to break through the guard, it is alleged, stabbed Thomas G. Daugherty twice, fatally wounding him. Daugherty's tobacco barn and a large quantity of tobacco were burned last spring by night riders and Daugherty had compared the handwriting of Dr. Morgan and the warnings received by McClure.

Harry Morgan was arrested and taken to Flemingsburg and placed in jail. When Morgan was searched a duplicate of the notice to McClure was found in his pocket.

This is the first arrest that has been made of any of the alleged indianers who have been alarming the county for about a year and it is believed the capture will lead to an exposure of all the night riders in this and adjoining counties.

The people are much aroused over the stabbing of Daugherty and the burning of the McClure office. The cause of the McClure trouble is assigned to the sending of a niece to the reform school last spring and the people of that community were very bitter against them. Each warning they received was in regard to her and all were signed "Night Riders."

pers' Stock Yards Tuesday:

Taylor & Sons. Stock Yards on East

BETTER THAN LAST YEAR.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The Department of Agriculture today issued a preliminary estimate of the production of the principal crops of the United States showing that corn, wheat, oats and eight other crops, representing approximately 70 per cent of the value of all farm crops this year aggregate about 3 per cent greater than a year ago and 2.4 per cent greater than the average for the last five years.

PAINT OUTLOOK IN BRILLIANT COLORS

Trade Journals Report Better Conditions Since Election.

New York, Nov. 11.—Reports on business conditions and outlook have just been made by 30 high class technical and trade papers in the east.
The papers represent lines from groceries and textiles to cooperage and boiler-making.

The report of the New York Real Estate Record and Guide is typical and fairly expresses the consensus of opinion. "Conditions are in very much better shape than they were six months ago."

The Railroad Gazette said: "There was no change until August last, when the railroads and manufacturers alike began to anticipate a safe and sane election. While the election has only just been decided, the result is highly satisfactory to the industry we represent."
